

Classified Senate Report – 2/12/26 College Council Meeting

Classified Senators have been busy with the start of spring semester. Many of us participated in Wayfinding for new students helping with navigation around our campuses and at Kentfield, our new building, Center for Student Success. Several Senators were also involved with the CSS Ribbon Cutting and Grand Opening event on Feb 4th and other events for the new semester.

Our next Classified Professionals event will be Tea Time, Feb. 24 at IVC in the Employee Breakroom and Feb. 25 at KTD in CSS. We are looking forward to gathering for community and connection among classified folks at both campuses!

The Classified Book Club is at a high with 45 members. Their current read is Audition by Katie Kitamura, a psychological thriller. This novel was named a 2025 Essential Read by the New Yorker and a top 10 book of the year by Time Magazine and Publishers Weekly. We appreciate the College's continued support of the Classified Book Club!

Angela Lingo from HR hosted a HR Huddle: How to make the most of your first year at COM on Feb. 11. Classified Senate was invited to speak on campus engagement. I shared about ways to get involved including Classified Senate and Academic Senate. Alyssa Graff shared about the Strategic Plan, Professional Learning, and Caring Campus.

Caring Campus launched a nomination form, available on the Caring Campus web page. Anyone can nominate a Caring Campus Champion and several have been submitted already. Nominees will be receiving a token of appreciation that says "Caring Campus Champion". There may be an opportunity for nominees to win a bigger prize at the employee appreciation lunch.

We are excited to announce our Hop Into Spring See's Candies Fundraiser featuring spring themed candies. The fundraiser goes through March 20th.

Thank you!
