Creating the Culture You Want: Understanding Principles that Influence Workplace Culture

ABOUT LARRY WOODLAND

Larry Woodland joined Side by Side as the Director of Clinical Practice in 2017. In his role at Side by Side, he is responsible for clinical practice and standards, data outcomes as well as quality assurance and quality improvement. Originally from the Washington Metropolitan area, Larry started working as a social worker in New York City after receiving his MSW from Fordham University in 2002. In his 17 years of practice, he worked as a therapist, program director and clinical director in a variety of settings including psychiatric emergency services, HIV/AIDS service organizations, substance abuse programs, medical and legal settings. In 2015, he received his MBA in marketing from Mills College in Oakland. Larry has spoken at national conferences and been interviewed for national publications on mental health stigma in minority communities, advocacy for mental health services, and LGBT mental health issues. Larry started one16 Consulting in 2017 to provide technical support and consulting to non-profit organizations around clinical operations and compliance, clinical supervision, including recruitment, training, and retention, and non-profit marketing.
