Charge

The Governance Review Council monitors and evaluates the governance process to ensure that: the system's processes are open, transparent and equitable; governance committees adhere to the guidelines outlined in the Participatory Governance System Plan; committees fulfill their charges effectively; committee members regularly communicate with their constituent group; recommendations are consistent with the mission of the College and reflect a core commitment to anti-racism; and the College actively maintains its participatory governance system.

Responsibilities

The Governance Review Council shall:

- review and recommend new or revised governance-related Board Policies and Administrative Procedures;
- conduct an evaluation of the governance system annually or more frequently when deemed necessary by two of the three senates or the Board of Trustees;
- serve as an adjudicating body for any issues having to do with the governance process. All recommendations will be written, justified and distributed to the College Council;
- establish appropriate timelines to complete tasks and make recommendations; and
- recommend to College Council changes and revisions to the Participatory Governance System that are based on evaluation process and recommendations from governance groups consistent with current laws and regulations.
- ensure that each committee's charge reflects the clear delineation between governance and management and separates the functions of planning and recommendations from operational activities;
- maintain contact with committee chairs on an ongoing basis;
- increase participatory governance visibility throughout the institution and actively work to engage new faculty and staff and especially students.
- GRC works with the Professional Learning Committee in:
 - preparing a Flex Week faculty and staff orientation and training
 - assisting in a PGS orientation to all new employees and training to committee members, especially chairs and co-chairs
 - publishing PGS articles or information in the President's Weekly Briefing if needed
 - maintaining PGS web pages
 - ensuring that each committee's staff resource posts meeting dates and minutes on the district website
 - providing a GRC point person to provide support or guidance if requested or needed.
 - tracking and reporting committee activities and assisting in filling vacant committee seats
