- Minutes from 9/9/2020 approved

Discuss and Confirm committee charge changes

- Tonya Hersch shared the revised Committee charge drafted from September 9th Committee discussion and post-meeting emails.
- Revisions were discussed and the revised charge was approved.
- Next steps are to send revisions to PRAC and then on to Governance Review Council for final approval.

Non-instructional Program Review Template

- Guiding Questions
 - The Committee began a discussion focused on the development of a list of guiding questions that will be used in the GRIT review of noninstructional programs. Participant suggestions included; how do noninstructional programs support individual student groups, engage in anti-racist activities, assess the success of objectives, and align with GRIT charge and College of Marin mission. The discussion also included consideration of the Noninstructional Program Review Intended Outcomes: Themes and Common Language document, and the Barstow Community College Noninstructional Review template.

- Participants were invited to continue to think about the content of these questions and communicate with Committee chair prior to the next meeting.
- Chair will draft a set of questions drawn from this discussion and any further feedback received via email, and bring a draft to the next meeting for further deliberation and/or approval.
