Review of proposal form, some edits were made to emphasize focus on equity and anti-racism.

- November 11, 2020 – Request for proposals will go out
- December 18, 2020 – schedule for FLEX week will be confirmed by this date
- Early January 2021 – events will be entered into ProLearning
- Convocation falls on January 20, which is Inauguration Day – will also try to adjust faculty schedule for this day so people are not tied to zoom for eight hours straight.

- Helping people adapt and be flexible
- Best practices using zoom and other tech tools – faculty panel?
