

Strategic Plan 2015-2018 Progress Report Year One: 2015-2016

Introduction

Academic Year 2015-2016 was the first year of our third and final three-year cycle of strategic planning for the Educational Master Plan 2009-2019 (EMP). Building upon accomplishments in previous strategic plans, a new component of this plan is using quantitative performance indicators for most of the objectives in order to better measure progress. The current plan also includes baselines and targets against which to gauge improvement.

This report is based on the Educational Planning Committee's (EPC) progress tracking in Fall and Spring semesters. Champions for each strategic plan objective provided written and oral reports. The EPC then rated the progress on each objective based on those reports. This year, two ratings were done for each objective. First, the extent to which activities designed to achieve the objective were being implemented was rated using color coding: red (not started), yellow (sufficient activity is occurring) or green (all activities are implemented). Second, the EPC determined whether the objective was met: yes or no depending on whether the performance indicator target was achieved. In this report, these ratings are organized in a table by EMP Focus Area: Student Access, Student Success, College Systems, Community Responsiveness, and Additional Strategic Objectives. Each objective is shown along with the activity progress indicator (red, yellow, green), the performance indicator's description, target, baseline (B), and performance (P), and whether the objective has been met.

Because most of the initiatives associated with the objectives began in 2015-2016, performance data will not be available until 2016-2017 unless otherwise noted. Even so, the baselines and targets are shown in this report to increase awareness of our intended accomplishments during this three-year planning cycle. For those objectives already achieved, progress will continue to be tracked annually to ensure continued action.

Progress Highlights

All of the objectives have either a green or yellow rating, showing that there has been substantial activity occurring within each. There have been many accomplishments during this first year. Concurrent enrollment of high school students has increased considerably and exceeded the target for the year. The same holds true for student attendance and faculty participation in pre-college activities designed to support new students' transition to COM. Evidence-based planning and decision making continues to grow through data analyses, research, and reporting. The District has a long-term budget strategy based upon a thorough review of its operational areas. Relationships with community and economic development partners continue to deepen as business/community needs are assessed and communicated to our partners. And, philanthropic support is growing through a variety of new and existing initiatives. Full reports on these, and all other objectives can be found on the EPC meetings website. A summary follows.
