

Applying Guided Pathways Principles to Your Professional Development Program

*CHRIS BENN, PATRICIA FLANNIGAN, REBECCA QUINN, SUSAN LUCYGA
SIERRA COLLEGE PROFESSIONAL AND ORGANIZATIONAL DEVELOPMENT*

What trainings do we need?

In small groups, discuss how your college decides what professional development opportunities to offer.

- ☐ Are your decisions influenced by your Flex obligation?
- ☐ How do you decide what training to offer classified professionals and managers?

Have someone record your answers to share out.

Guided Pathways...Why Not?

Clarify the Path – Core Competencies

Next Steps

☐ Enter the Path

- Develop trainings utilizing different modalities

☐ Stay on the Path

- Create incentive programs, such as a professional development scholar program

☐ Ensure Learning

- Implement a robust evaluation system, possibly through Cornerstone as well as other avenues

Let's Discuss

How can your college utilize Guided Pathways principles to develop your professional development program?

Let's Talk

Sierra College Professional and Organizational Development

prodev@sierracollege.edu

Chris Benn, Professional Development Coordinator, cbenn@sierracollege.edu

Patricia Flannigan, Administrative Assistant, pflannigan@sierracollege.edu

Rebecca Quinn, Faculty Professional Development Coordinator, rquinn@sierracollege.edu

Susan Lucyga, Educational Director, slucyga@sierracollege.edu